

vocabulary

Every computer that connects to the internet is given one of these numbers which tells people the real address of that computer

IP address

The part of the webpage, normally at the top, that provides you with links to the main pages of the site

Little pictures often used to label a folder on a computer to show people what they can expect to find inside.

thumbnails

The process of transferring information from your computer to the internet.

A place online for a person to write their thoughts about something for others to read and comment upon.

white board

polls

You see these on most websites, which use them as a way of gaining money and for paying for the website.

An online facility that allows video and audio files to load and play when they are clicked on.

upload

streaming

A feature on Bebo that allows users to create questionnaires for other users to vote on.

You can find this section at the bottom of the page on Bebo and it is the place to go if you are not sure about something.

block

banner ads

A facility on Bebo that allows you to stop certain people looking at your profile and communicating with you.

This feature allows you to draw freehand pictures in Bebo to add to your or other people's profiles.

privacy settings

blog

The word used to describe the page you design in Bebo to describe yourself.

profile

This function allows you to decide whether you want to have a public or private profile on Bebo.

help

navigation bar

